CHAP CHARLEY.

Alleged Female Bristle.
Mrs. John Dillner, known to the police as "Sugar Foot," was arrested and lodged in jail to-day by Marshal Mason. She arrived here from Jacksonville last night after an absence of a week, and brought back with her a child 6 weeks old which she threatened to destroy, and this threat made by her caused her arrest. She claims to have two husbands living in his county. She married John Dillner about a year ago. On July 25, at Vandalia, she married Charles Brown, a peddler, now in Decatur; and Charles denies the paternity of the infant which Mary claims is certainly Charles' babe. Marshal Mason will probably prefer a charge of bigamy against Mary. The baby is in charge of an elderly lady.

The Gypsy Play.
A large and highly appreciative audience—one which filled nearly every seat in the hall above and below—was well entertained at the opera house last night by the Brooks & Dickson party, by the splendid presentation of the grand romantic and spectacular drama, "Romany Rye," in six acts and innumerable scenes, a piece written by G. B. Sims, author of the "Lights of London." The troupe numbered a company of excellent actors, chief of whom were Luke Martin as Boss Knecht, Mr. Dennis, as "Romany Rye," Mr. McManus as Joe Hackett, Mrs. Jones as Mother Shipton, Miss Baker, as Gertrude Hackett, and Miss Foy, as Laura Lee. The scenic effects were magnificent and quite a pleasant surprise to many in the audience who really did not expect such a spectacular treat. The company left this morning for Leavenworth, Kansas.

Ante-Ahead.
Decatur got to the front again in the races at Louisville, Kentucky, and Powers & Son raked in another purse valued at about $1,700. It was for the Most & Chandler, champagne stakes, 3-year-olds, nine furlongs. Starters: Antelope, Ascender, Cardinal McCloskey. Antelope took the lead at the start and at the stretch was a length in front of Ascender and Cardinal McCloskey on even terms. Antelope first, Ascender second, Ascender third. Time—1:56 1/4. Shoema did not start.

Funeral.
The funeral of the late Jay Caldwell, who died on Sunday night, will take place from the residence of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Caldwell, corner of West Main and Edward streets, on Friday afternoon, Oct. 12th, at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. W. H. Presley officiating. Friends of the family are invited to attend.

A Wedding.
Mr. Charles W. Waugh, general car inspector for all the roads catering at St. Louis, was in the city to-day. Charley left this afternoon for Chapin, Ill., where to-morrow morning he will be united in marriage to Miss Orpha E. Strong, daughter of Rev. P. J. Strong, a Methodist minister, who will perform the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Waugh will arrive in Decatur at noon to-morrow and will be given a reception and dinner at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Pelen in the fifth ward. The couple after visiting Peoria and Chicago, will make their home at St. Louis.

Chas. McNULTY's fine barn in Holletown is now completed and painted, and is one of the very best in that vicinity. His tenant and stock partner will feed for market 100 head of cattle. Mr. D. M. Daniels is his tenant and partner, and has 200 head of hogs, and has just purchased four blue ribbon prize hogs from Pike county—Poland China Stock—paying therefor the sum of $108.—Bloomington Pantagraph.

Reception and Festival.
The ladies of Stapp's Chapel have arranged to give a reception at the church on Thursday evening, Oct. 11th, in honor of the new pastor, Rev. Webster, at which time refreshments will be provided for all who desire them. Admission, 10 cents. Everybody invited to attend. 46d

Lovely Statuary and Vases.
Those of our people who wish to decorate their homes at small cost, should have no time in calling at J. T. Hand & Co's, in P. O. block, where is displayed a most beautiful and magnificent collection of Italian Marble and Alabaster Statuary, Grecian and Florentine Vases, Roman Urns, Card Receivers, Fruit Stands, Genuine Marble Tables, Ornaments and works of art, all lately arrived here from Florence, Italy. They are each and all genuine articles, and at very low prices, having purchased the lot at a bargain, he will sell the same at very low figures for cash. Inspect the display. No trouble to show the vases and statuary. 0049-d6w1

The Romany Rye party go from Decatur to Leavenworth, Kansas, thence to Denver, and then on across the continent to San Francisco, California.

A sum of money of enterprising residents of towns in this and a joining counties are preparing to collect cream from the country districts and ship it to the Decatur Creamery on the train. The new enterprise is gradually developing.

You and your friends are wanted to attend the Universalist society to-night at the residence of W. F. Bashor, on west South Main street.

Deaths of Honor.
Regular meeting of Decatur Lodge, No. 687, to-night at 7:30 o'clock. Members requested to be present.

A. A. Woon, Reporter.

The funeral of Maria Schmitt, aged 2 months and 15 days, took place this forenoon from the home of the parents on West Wood street.

A Tribute.
DIED—At 11:45, on Friday evening, Oct. 5, 1883, after a short illness of four days, Bessie, daughter of John and Jennie Anders, aged 2 years, daughter of Mr. James C. Davis.

Reside in the arms of Jesus, love, believe and wait with the faith of the saints. To meet her in the realm of light. 64d6w1

Thus, Penworth, passenger and excursion agent for the P. D. & E. R. R., announces cheap excursions from Decatur to Kansas, Nebraska, Dakota, Montana, and all Pacific coast points, over the P. D. & E. R. R. Oct. 15th and 20th. Tickets good for 45 days. For further particulars see Mr. Penworth. 0014d6w1

Correct Styles.
A great deal can be learned regarding the correct styles for fall and winter outside garments by examining our present grand display. Plenty of room and an exquisite light in our new cloak and shawl department. Here handsome goods now on exhibition. Inspection invited.

Respectfully,
POPULAR NEW YORK STORE.

Picked Up for Dead.
Mrs. John Dillner, known to the police as "Sugar Foot," was arrested and lodged in jail to-day by Marshal Mason. She arrived here from Jacksonville last night after an absence of a week, and brought back with her a child 6 weeks old which she threatened to destroy, and this threat made by her caused her arrest. She claims to have two husbands living in his county. She married John Dillner about a year ago. On July 25, at Vandalia, she married Charles Brown, a peddler, now in Decatur; and Charles denies the paternity of the infant which Mary claims is certainly Charles' babe. Marshal Mason will probably prefer a charge of bigamy against Mary. The baby is in charge of an elderly lady.

The Facts.
We received a call to-day from Mr. Patrick Clark, who states that he can prove by at least 20 well-known citizens that he was out of the city on Oct. 24, 25, and 26, attending the St. Louis fair, and therefore could not have known anything of the conduct of Mr. McMillan, the teacher lately in charge of the school at Oak Ridge. He knows nothing of the whipping of the pupils by said teacher until Thursday night on his return home and after the teacher had gone away, and therefore Mr. Clark could not and did not make any threats against McMillan. This will set right all false reports that have been in circulation about the matter.

PERSONAL MENTION.

John W. January is expected here next week at the reunion.

Ed. Johnson went south on the P. D. & E. this forenoon.

Chas. M. Caldwell returned home from Michigan to-day.

IL B. Funk and wife, of the Monticello Hotel, are at the St. Nicholas.

F. N. Scott, agent for Josephine Bailey, is at the St. Nicholas hotel.

Miss Meriam Root, of Platt county, is a guest of Mrs. Theo. Nelson.

Phil. Simmonds, business manager for "Ranch 10," is at the New Deming.

Orlando Powers, of Jacksonville, is in the city, looking after his property interests.

Mrs. W. O. Flisig and Mrs. Dimmock, who have been visiting Mrs. Dr. Hoskins and Mrs. W. O. Taylor for several weeks, left for their home in Missouri this morning.

Robert D. W. Johnson, of Tuscola, where he resides in doing the bowing and smiling behind the counters in a large dry goods house, is in the city visiting friends. "Bob" was lately clerk at the New Deming, where he is always welcome.

Mrs. J. B. Fielder and her two accomplished daughters, Lulu and Gracie, are home from a trip through the west. The Misses Fielder, who have so often nided in local entertainments, will be given a bono by our people soon.

Howard Gould, who was down on the bill as the ship's doctor, in the play of the "Romany Rye," last night, got left this morning, and will make the trip to Leavenworth alone. He overslept himself. The party appear at Leavenworth Friday night, and if Gould is active he can get there to-morrow afternoon.

Joseph Kaufmann, "Cheap Charley's" partner, came near losing his life in the fire's big store at Chicago on Tuesday. He fell through an elevator hole, but saved himself by catching hold of the wire rope. He struck the floor on his head, and was taken home in a carriage. He was barely able to be out yesterday.

Mrs. Annula Humphrey, of Whitewater, Wis., arrived in the city this morning on a visit to her grand-sons, John W. and Geo. W. Lyon, and her great grand-children. She was accompanied by her niece, Mrs. Esther Smith, of Whitewater. Mrs. W. A. Lyon, of Leavenworth, Mo., mother of the Lyon brothers, also arrived in the city this morning, and all will remain here about a month.

A NEW HORSE COMPANY.

A Company Incorporated for the Purpose of Breeding and Raising Horses in Texas.

Bloomington Pantagraph.
Isaiah Dillon and son, of Normal, in company with Thomas Storrett, of Decatur, in company with some parties in Texas, have organized a company known as the Northwest Texas Norman Horse company. They have obtained a charter, and have a paid-up capital of $100,000. They have already on hand 2,700 Texas horses and 25 Norman stallions, and a few imported and grade mares. They want to increase their capital to $200,000. The intention is to breed northwestern Texas mares to Norman stallions, and as fast as possible graduate their stock, and at the same time use a number of high-grade and pure-bred mares.

The people of Texas, as well as other states, are getting awakened to the importance of horse breeding. They have the best facilities for horse raising, and can produce a horse as cheap as a steer. Even their Texas horses sell in Texas for twice as much as their cattle. Their milch or cow ponies in Texas sell from $10 to $20, and with one cross of the Norman horse will bring twice as much. The cost of raising them is small, as they can live and do well the whole year round on grass alone. Horses do much better through the winter in Texas than any other kind of stock.

Isaiah Dillon has been breeding horses for over a quarter of a century. He and his brother, Levi Dillon, were the first to engage in Norman horse breeding in the west. The success that has attended their enterprise is well known to almost every American citizen. They are not contented with handling their own stock of Normans in Illinois, and are now laying their plans to breed them in Texas by the thousands. Once they had a score of half-blood mares, and hatched themselves and truly, look that they had the best lot of heavy horses in the country. Now, in addition to the large herd of high-grade and pure-bred, they promise to use Norman stallions in their herd of mares, 300, in Texas.

THE MILITARY FAIR.
The Guards secure the Electric Light for their Reception at the Tab.

Many Decatur ladies are at work at the tabernacle to-day arranging for the fair and festival to be inaugurated to-night for the benefit of the Guards. The fair will be a stunner, and will attract a room full of people nightly—the affair will not close until Saturday evening.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.

The management have been successful in securing the electric light for each of the three nights. Two are lamps, one from Ferris & Co's and one from "Cheap Charley's," will afford ample illumination and make the large room as light as day. This is a nice stroke of enterprise, and will be appreciated by the hundreds of people who will flock to the tabernacle to patronize the festival and view the new light.

TO READ.

Mrs. Arthur E. Kinney, the gifted elocutionist, has consented to give a dramatic reading at the fair to-morrow (Friday) evening. This announcement will insure a large attendance, as it is always a pleasure to hear Mrs. Kinney read.

THE PRIZES.

A large number of prizes will be disposed of, a list which is given below:

Presentation sword from the Putti bone Manufacturing Company, Cincinnati, to be voted to the most popular commissioned officer.

Silver water set from E. D. Bartholomew & Co., to be voted to the most popular non-commissioned officer or private in Co's K, or J.

One pair of Italian marble vases from J. A. Hand & Co., to be disposed of by lot.

One Heron's silk umbrella donated by John Irwin, the clothier.

Ladies' wax doll, donated by Bartholomew & Co.

Ladies' rattan sewing chair, donated by Buchanan Bros.

Fine Moquette rug donated by Abel & Locke.

Ladies' English riding bridle, donated by J. G. Starr & Son.

One dollar of each of the one pair of pants made to order, donated by L. Flurry; the wearer to have choice of articles.

Pair of costly and beautiful silk handkerchiefs and pair of linen hem stitched handkerchiefs, donated by Lina & Serrage.

Four new silk mittens, donated by S. G. Hatch & Bro.

Box of 100 cigars from Joe Wesson; same of "Little Dinko" cigars from Quinn & Beesforth.

Scantlin, the Comedian.

The molo-drum, "Friend and foe" will be the attraction at the opera house to-morrow night. Said the Chicago News of the comedian:

The most remarkable feature of this week's business has been the crowds which have nightly filled the Academy of Music. Not a seat has been found empty, and frequently standing room could hardly be obtained. A more remarkable thing is that, for once, the people were right, and the entertainment was worth all the patronage it received. Mr. W. J. Scanlan is a young Irish actor of superlative merit. He is handsome in person, polite in manner, exquisitely neat and clean in costume, plays with a freshness and spirit not often seen, sings with a flute-like voice a repertoire of well-selected songs, and has a piece exactly suited to his style. Dramatically he is superior to Murphy; musically he excels Emmett, and having the advantage of novelty, should draw equally well at any theater in America. He is, in Irish roles, the coming man, and all the first-class houses will before long be anxious to give him dates.
